r e w o r d

THE catchword of the hour is national defense. Under this slogan will be constructed stupendous armaments designed to crush the forces opposed to the American way of living.

But in order to fully protect our cherished social, political, and religious institutions, we need more than material aids. We need to have the will to win; and if necessary the spirit to sacrifice joyfully.

We believe our graduating class, born to the purple of Liberty and nourished with high ideals of Citizenship, is well qualified to step across the threshold of Our Lady on the Hill, into the World of Today!

The richness of the book is national defense. Under this slogan will be constant exposure, arguments designed to reach the forces engaged in the American world.

It is in order to fully meet our needs of social, political, and religious institutions, we need more than material aids. We need to have the will to win and to maintain the spirit to win (see page 10).

We believe our graduates should have the power of liberty and combined with high ideals of citizenship is well qualified to step across the threshold of Our Land on the Hill into the World of Today.

STANTON A. RALSTON
Principal

As I prepare my signature for the June 1941 COG 'N' PEN, I reflect that your class is "big" not only in numbers.

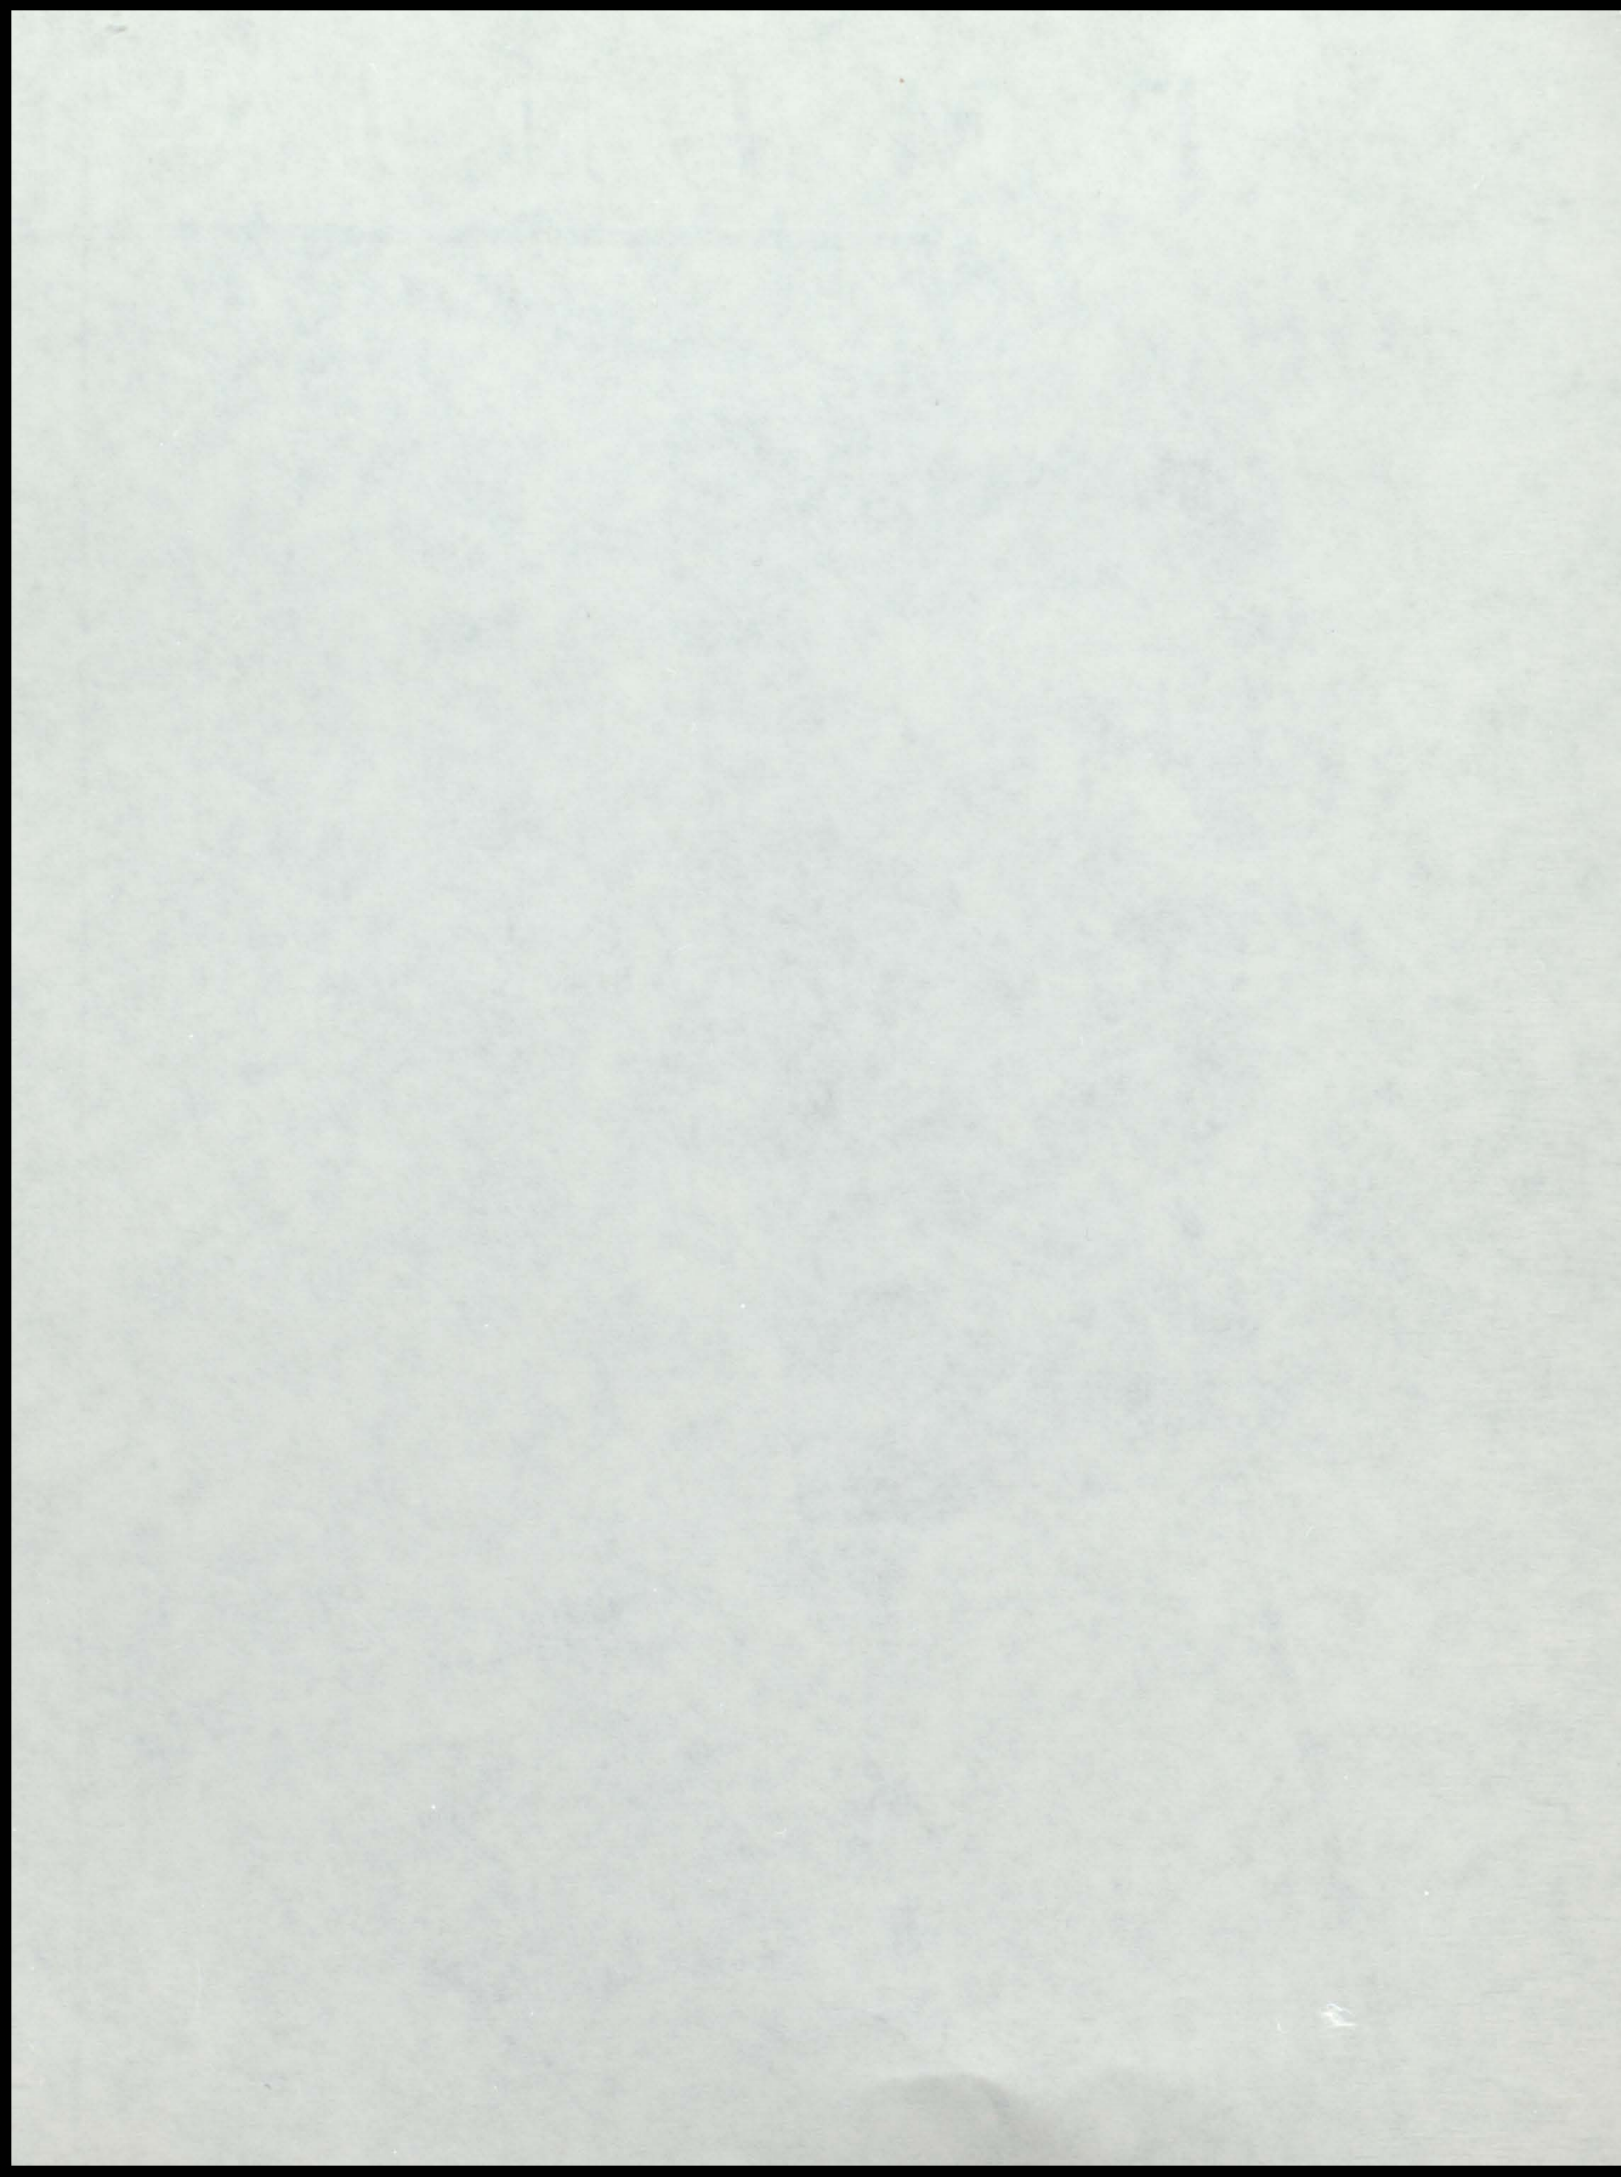

Your stay at Central has been marked by numerous achievements both as individuals and as a class.

We have every confidence that as you move out to take your places in the world, you will carry on with credit to yourselves and your school.

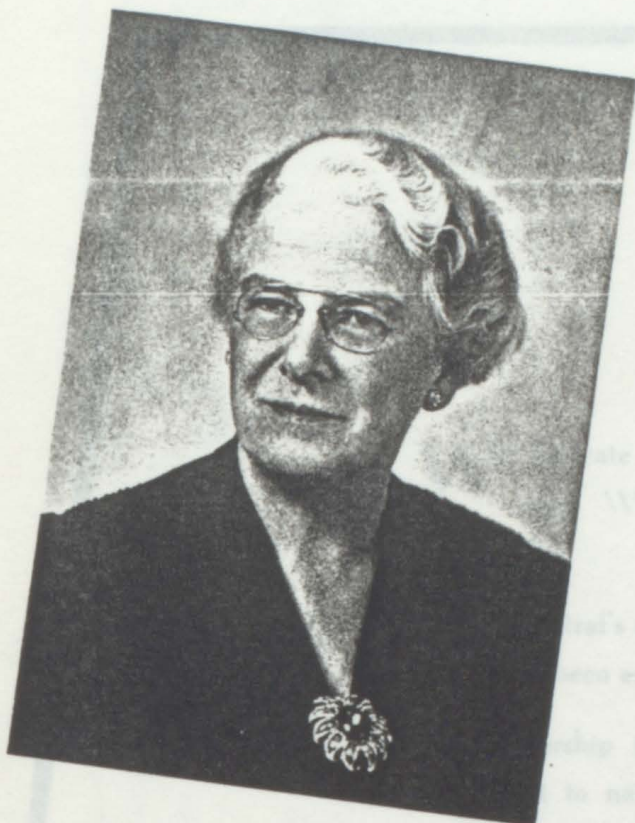

When you leave the classroom to assume the duties of maturity, our interest in you will not cease.

Therefore, I do not say good-bye, but good luck!

DEDICATION

WE dedicate our book to the spirit of leadership. Without inspired leadership, a people will fail.

In Central's executives the spirit of fine leadership has been exemplified to us daily.

Leadership in preparation for life is more significant to national welfare than spectacular leadership in warfare, for he who leads his hosts against ignorance, prejudice, and intolerance is greater than he who wins a battle.

Builders of morale, our dedicatees, you are heroes too!

Faculty

DEDICATION

When we look back on the years of leadership, we find that the most important thing we have done is to have been faithful to our duty.

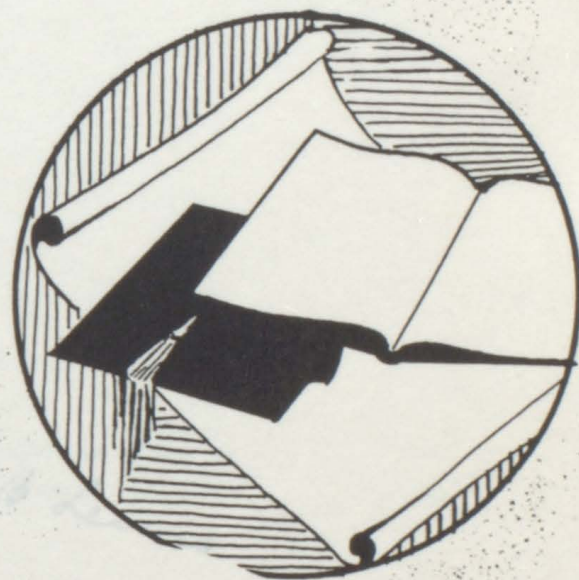

In the end, it is not the size of the task that counts, but the faithfulness of the man who does it.

Leadership is preparation for life. It is not a position, but a way of living. It is not a title, but a responsibility. It is not a job, but a calling. It is not a career, but a vocation. It is not a profession, but a service. It is not a privilege, but a duty. It is not a power, but a trust. It is not a wealth, but a sacrifice. It is not a glory, but a humility. It is not a fame, but a silence. It is not a voice, but a witness. It is not a light, but a shadow. It is not a shadow, but a light.

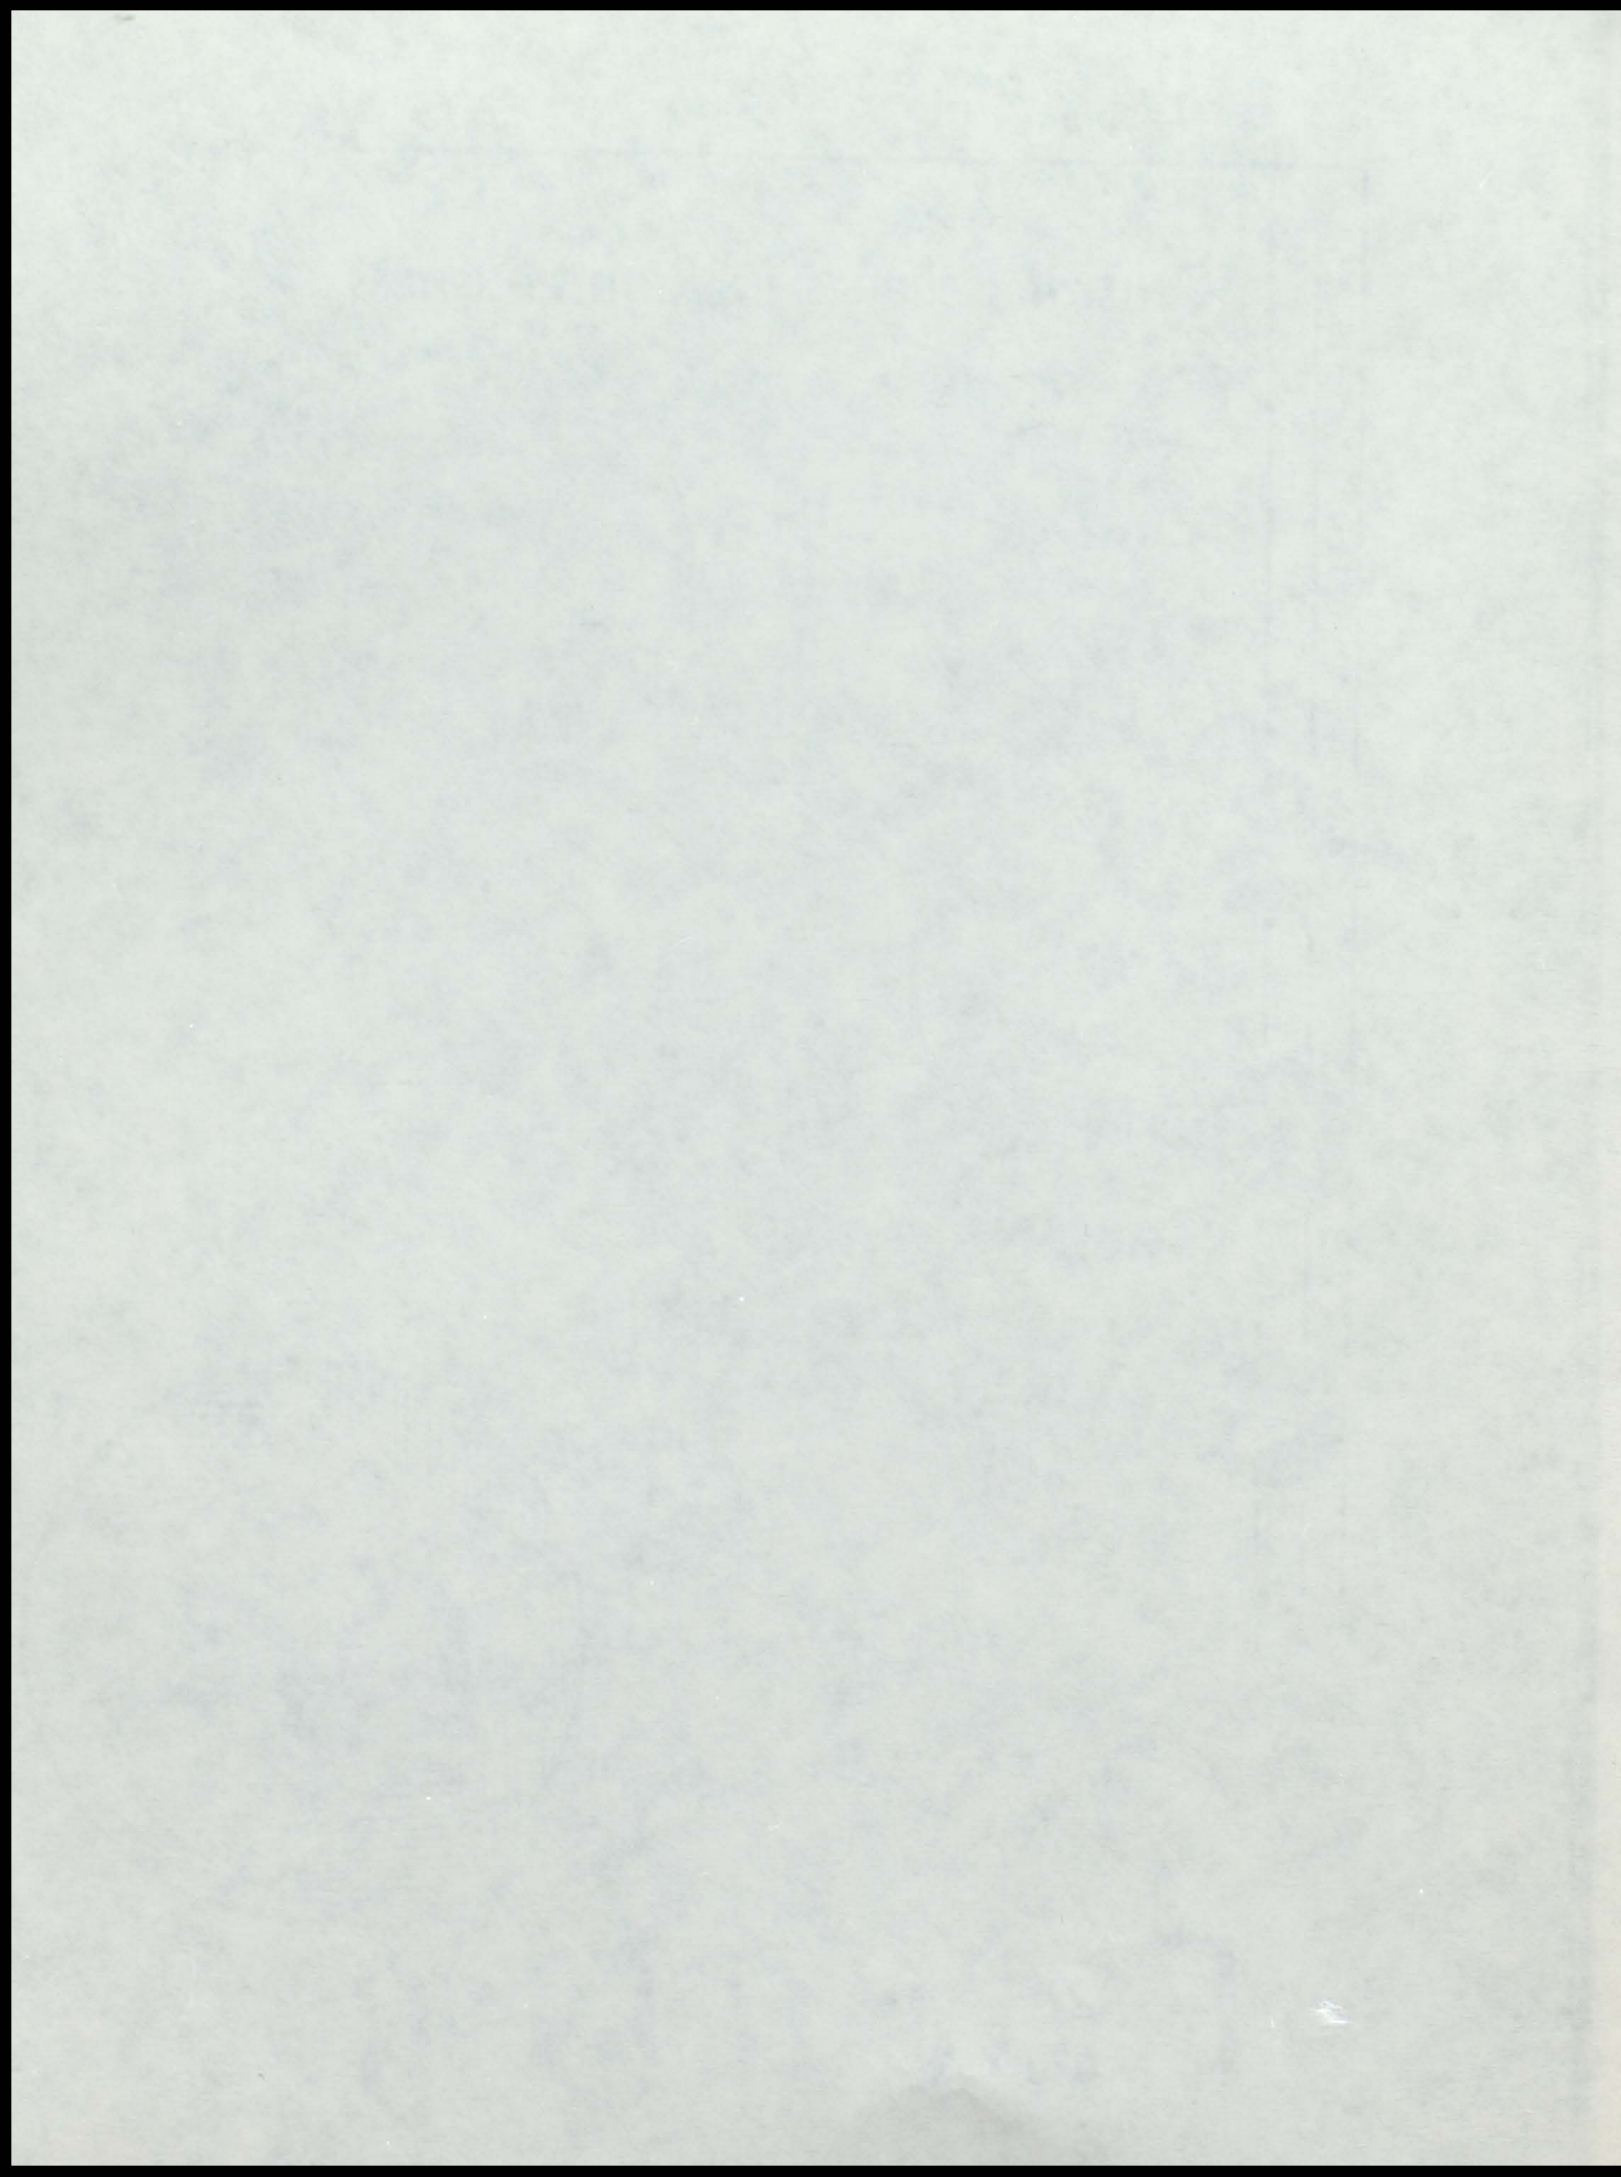

Leadership is not a matter of the head, but of the heart. It is not a matter of the hand, but of the soul. It is not a matter of the body, but of the spirit. It is not a matter of the flesh, but of the blood. It is not a matter of the bones, but of the marrow. It is not a matter of the skin, but of the nerves. It is not a matter of the muscles, but of the tendons. It is not a matter of the joints, but of the ligaments. It is not a matter of the bones, but of the marrow. It is not a matter of the skin, but of the nerves. It is not a matter of the muscles, but of the tendons. It is not a matter of the joints, but of the ligaments.

Advisers

We wish to thank Miss Mitchell and Mr. Lewis for their cooperation and patience in helping us with all our many activities. They taught us how to work together efficiently both in small and large groups. Swell major advisers, we say!

We wish to thank Mrs. Welles, our art adviser, for her help and direction. No demand on her strength and skill was ever too great when it came to adding the artistic touch.

Mabel Welles

We wish to thank Miss Boutillier, Miss Gellas and Mrs. Wright for their help with mimeographed materials.

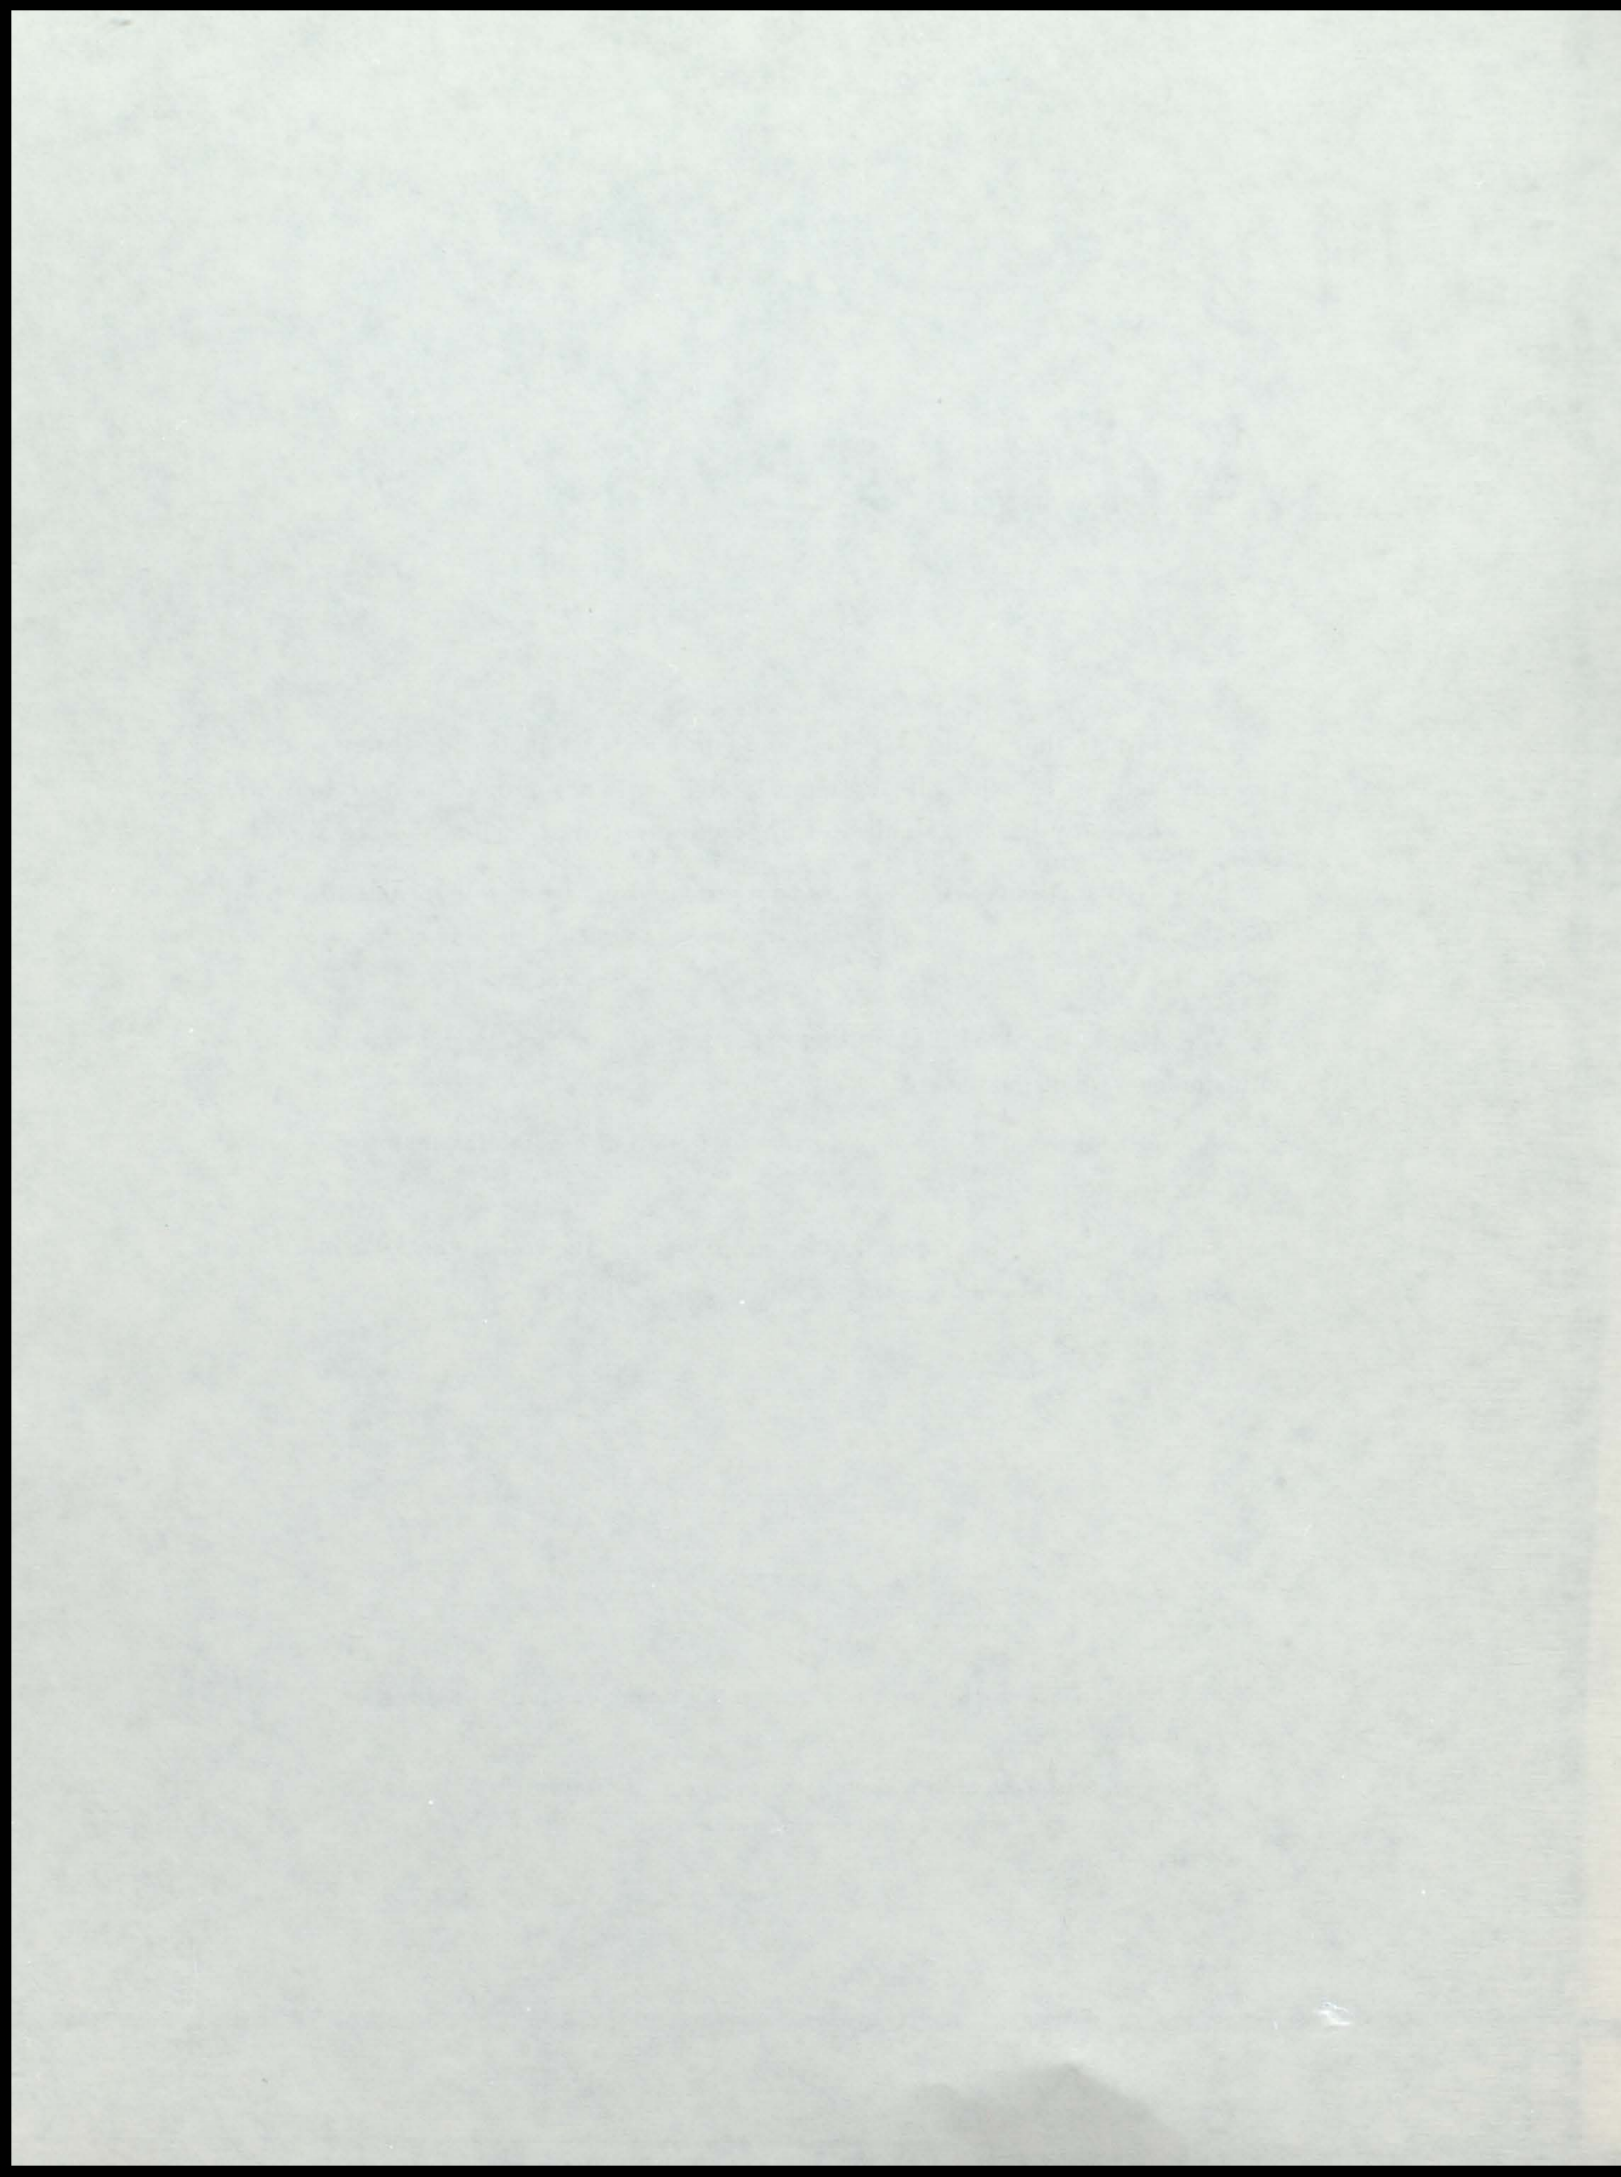

We wish to thank Mr. Susskind for the time and energy he put into the photographic features of this COG 'N' PEN.

And last, but not least, our thanks go to Messrs. Sherreshaw and Turnbull for that wonderful aerial photograph of Central on our title page.

Editor's Note:

We are lucky to have gotten together so many pictures of our faculty.

A number of our teachers, because of pressure of duties or other adverse circumstances do not appear on these pages. We regret this.

WE boast Democracy in our leadership—Witness the four racial contributions to our officer staff. An Irishman, a Hebrew, an Italian, and English lassie mark us as cosmopolitan.

Central, however, is not a "melting pot." Think of our school as the place where precious metals are further refined and shaped for service.

And he was gone."

SOME one once said, "that the old order changeth giving place to new." Now we are starting to realize the truth of that quotation.

And with the changes, come a feeling of sorrow. We will not be able after June 19, 1941, to return as students to the beloved halls of our high school. But memories of our school days will never fade.

Nor will the lessons taught and the ideals attained ever fail us.

As we face our citizenship, we cling to the thought of a great teacher.

"Whatsoever things are true,
Whatsoever things are honorable,
Whatsoever things are just,
Whatsoever things are pure,
Whatsoever things are lovely,
Whatsoever things are of good report,
If there be any virtue, and
If there be any praise,
Think on these things."

PHILIPPIANS IV—8, 9

In Memory of JOSEPH M. McVABOE

His name
I do not understand
I only know
That as he turned to go
And waved his hand
In his young eyes
A noble glow shone
And I was dazzled by the radiant glow
And he was gone

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

(If you have tears, prepare to patch them now.)

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF JUNE 1941, CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, CITY OF NEWARK, on the slippery banks of the Passaic, COUNTY OF ESSEX, NEW JERSEY, having finally completed our required courses, and being of sound mind, hereby make this our last will and testament, to be carried out by posterity.

ITEM I

To Principal Ralston, and our faculty, we leave our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for ever-ready assistance and encouragement.

ITEM II

Further to the faculty, students and janitors, we leave our beloved building with its sweeping views of a great industrial city.

ITEM III

To the students, we leave our studiously soiled text-books, marked and dog-eared to prove that we were "bored with education."

ITEM IV

To the Student Body, we bequeath our clubs, and organizations with open membership to all.

ITEM V

To the janitors, our most sincere gratitude for their ever willing and untiring efforts in keeping our school a clean and tidy institution.

ITEM VI

To the teachers, we leave:

- a) the echoes of our cracking gum during discussions.
- b) our boisterousness in the halls.
- c) our tardiness, plus excuses.
- d) our unpreparedness, plus worn alibis.

ITEM VII

To the students, we relinquish the privilege of trying to get all A's in exams, and the remote possibility of Super Honor Roll attainment.

ITEM VIII

To the students who really wish to acquire knowledge, we leave the sunshine of the Library with its scholarly atmosphere; artistic arrangement all produced by the thoughtfulness of our efficient librarians.

ITEM IX

To future Yearbook Staffs, we leave this will, courage, and ambition, plus strength to wrangle from students the necessary articles for compiling the Standard Yearbook.

ITEM X

We leave to the generation yet unborn, the anticipatory clicks of time clocks announcing the ending of periods. (Oh Boy! That's a long minute before you see HER in the hall.)

ITEM XI

We leave to those students who like to leave their names in public places:

- a) the blinds on the doors of the auditorium stage.
- b) the canvas pads on the pillars of both gyms.
- c) sundry remote spaces.

WARNING: Woe be unto him who ever defaces our fair walls!!! Not only woe but curses!!

ITEM XII

To our immediate successors, the Seniors, we leave the hardships and pleasures which confront a Senior Class, together with the best wishes for all success and happiness. We only ask you to remember, "What a man sows, that shall he also rip."

I. B. THREW, Esquire

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHETS

THIS prophecy is a perforation into the density of an epoch which has yet to arrive. I, the chief prophet in collaboration with my assembly of beautiful femmes and non-femmes, am about to uncover to you an infinitesimal unit of your animated globe. Some of us are imbued with ectocardia and some possess an unshaken adherence in dynamism. (Crystal balls are cheap when they're bought wholesale.) You shall see what we shall see. With anticipation that this conception of the intellectual faculty of the human being will prove commodious,—we proceed.

* * * * *

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO ELEANOR HERGERT.

Round and round she goes, the crystal ball,
What does the future hold for us all?
Tell us, Oh ball, that knows so much,
But please don't get this author in "Dutch."

VICTORIA ARMINIO, FLORA BANDA and EVELYN LANG are all attached. CATHERINE BUXTON, ANGIE COSIMANO, and MARIE DEL TUFO all have cars; but if they meet John Law — Conductor of the band of the future will be PETRINA SPINOSO. The band which is as whimsical and grotesque as modern art, will feature high flute by MOLLIE MINCARELLI; JENNY D'AGOSTINO on the pianoforte; and IRENE KASSAY and FRANCES MAGNANTI distributing the sheet music. JOSEPHINE STRANO will be in the Met. MODESTA ZAMARELLI and ADELAIDE NEST are soapbox barkers. They're yelling for longer elbows on elbow macaroni. MARY FERRUGGIA, BERTHA SCHMUCKLER and DORA ROSELLI are trying to get steak with other bone letters than the "T", while DRUCILLA TOWNES, ROSE MAGNASCO, and VIRGINIA LIPARI are still wondering how to look up a word in Webster's Dictionary when they can't spell it. Top-flight girls: JANIE MULLOCK, OLGA SHUMANOW' and CONNIE COLASANTI better not fall down the steps. ALICE SOLOWAY, MARION APRIL and MAIDA VAUGHAN are running for first-lady or are they following GILDA TAMBURRI and BETTY LINFANTE who are chasing some boys trying to elude ANNA RUSSO and SOPHIE MIKITUK. ROSE LA CAVOR, VIRGINIA PETRUZZINO and JOSEPHINE ESPOSITO are seeing Wall Street bankers daily. In certain spots, skating stars GLORIA ILVENTO and ELEANOR HERGERT will shine more than HENJE. Girls who can lick their weight in wild cats are GLORIA DEL RUSSO and EVELYN VOLPE but they couldn't or is it wouldn't, in boys?

Little magic ball, from me take flight
You've done far too much work tonight.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO IRMA WALKER

I, Ama Wake, (professional name) possessing the unpropitious properties of a Turkish fortune teller, am about to glance into my crystal sphere.

There goes DOMINIC GREGORIO into a business office with a brunette (originally a blonde). Wonder what his business is. CLARK (not Gable) HUTCHINSON works in the same building. Must be a corporation. CLARENCE SCHOTTER, a trombone tooter is trying to become a musician. Included in his little band which is later destined to become an orchestra, are smiling JOE BRADLEY, happy LARRY DOUGHERTY, and DAVE LAKE.

Across the street, in the theater which ran the Radio City Music Hall out of business, is a play. "Citizen Sugar Kane" starring IRMA WALKER and Orsen Welles, Jr. In the accompanying stage presentation are torch singer, JUANITA SHIPMAN, she's really hot; and MARY NAPOLITANO who knocks the customers out of their seats either with her lovely smile or that bat she carries around. Among the chorus girls, are MARY PLATIA and JEAN HOSIER, both looking forward to be (censored).

BEN PECARARO, TOM BONDS, and NICK CASCELLA will build barns for RALPH PARADISE and JOHN KALLAS to hit. VINCENT DEL MAESTRO will manufacture all-steel shovels for ditch-diggers. MARTIN LITOWITZ will develop from an egglayer into a brick (hard-boiled egg) layer.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO MIKE S. BOVE.

The skating ring operated by CHARLES KEICHER, BILL GALL, JOHN GAVARNY and JOHN TRAMPLER, four champion skaters (they said so) has had an upward surge of business because pretty female skaters are no longer required to wear short skirts and skate with the operators.

The JIM KISSANE-MIKE BOVE Pizzeria is attracting celebrities from the other side of the rocket station. (A thousand free-passes were distributed in that section.) Tomato pies, a favorite of JIM'S, has been labeled as a cause for the non-profit ledger. ANTHONY VOLPE, basketball coach of the state-champion Central High quintet, has just entered with a dizzy dame. FRED HEIMLICH, ace comic-sheet reader, is dining with America's ambassador to Siberia, FREDDIE FIDUCIA. EMIL TACOVSKY, portraying Tarzan in the movies under BOB WILSON, is also around.

SEYMOUR HUDSON in the array of a doorman is trying to keep out JOE DEL CORSO, FRED DELLANO, and JOE ARCUDI, sponsors of an anti-noise campaign. The cause for all this is BOB PIGGOTT, famed drummer, and his band and his racket. JERRY DI STASIO, contender for the in-between boxing title will make sure that HUDSON won't be stepped on.

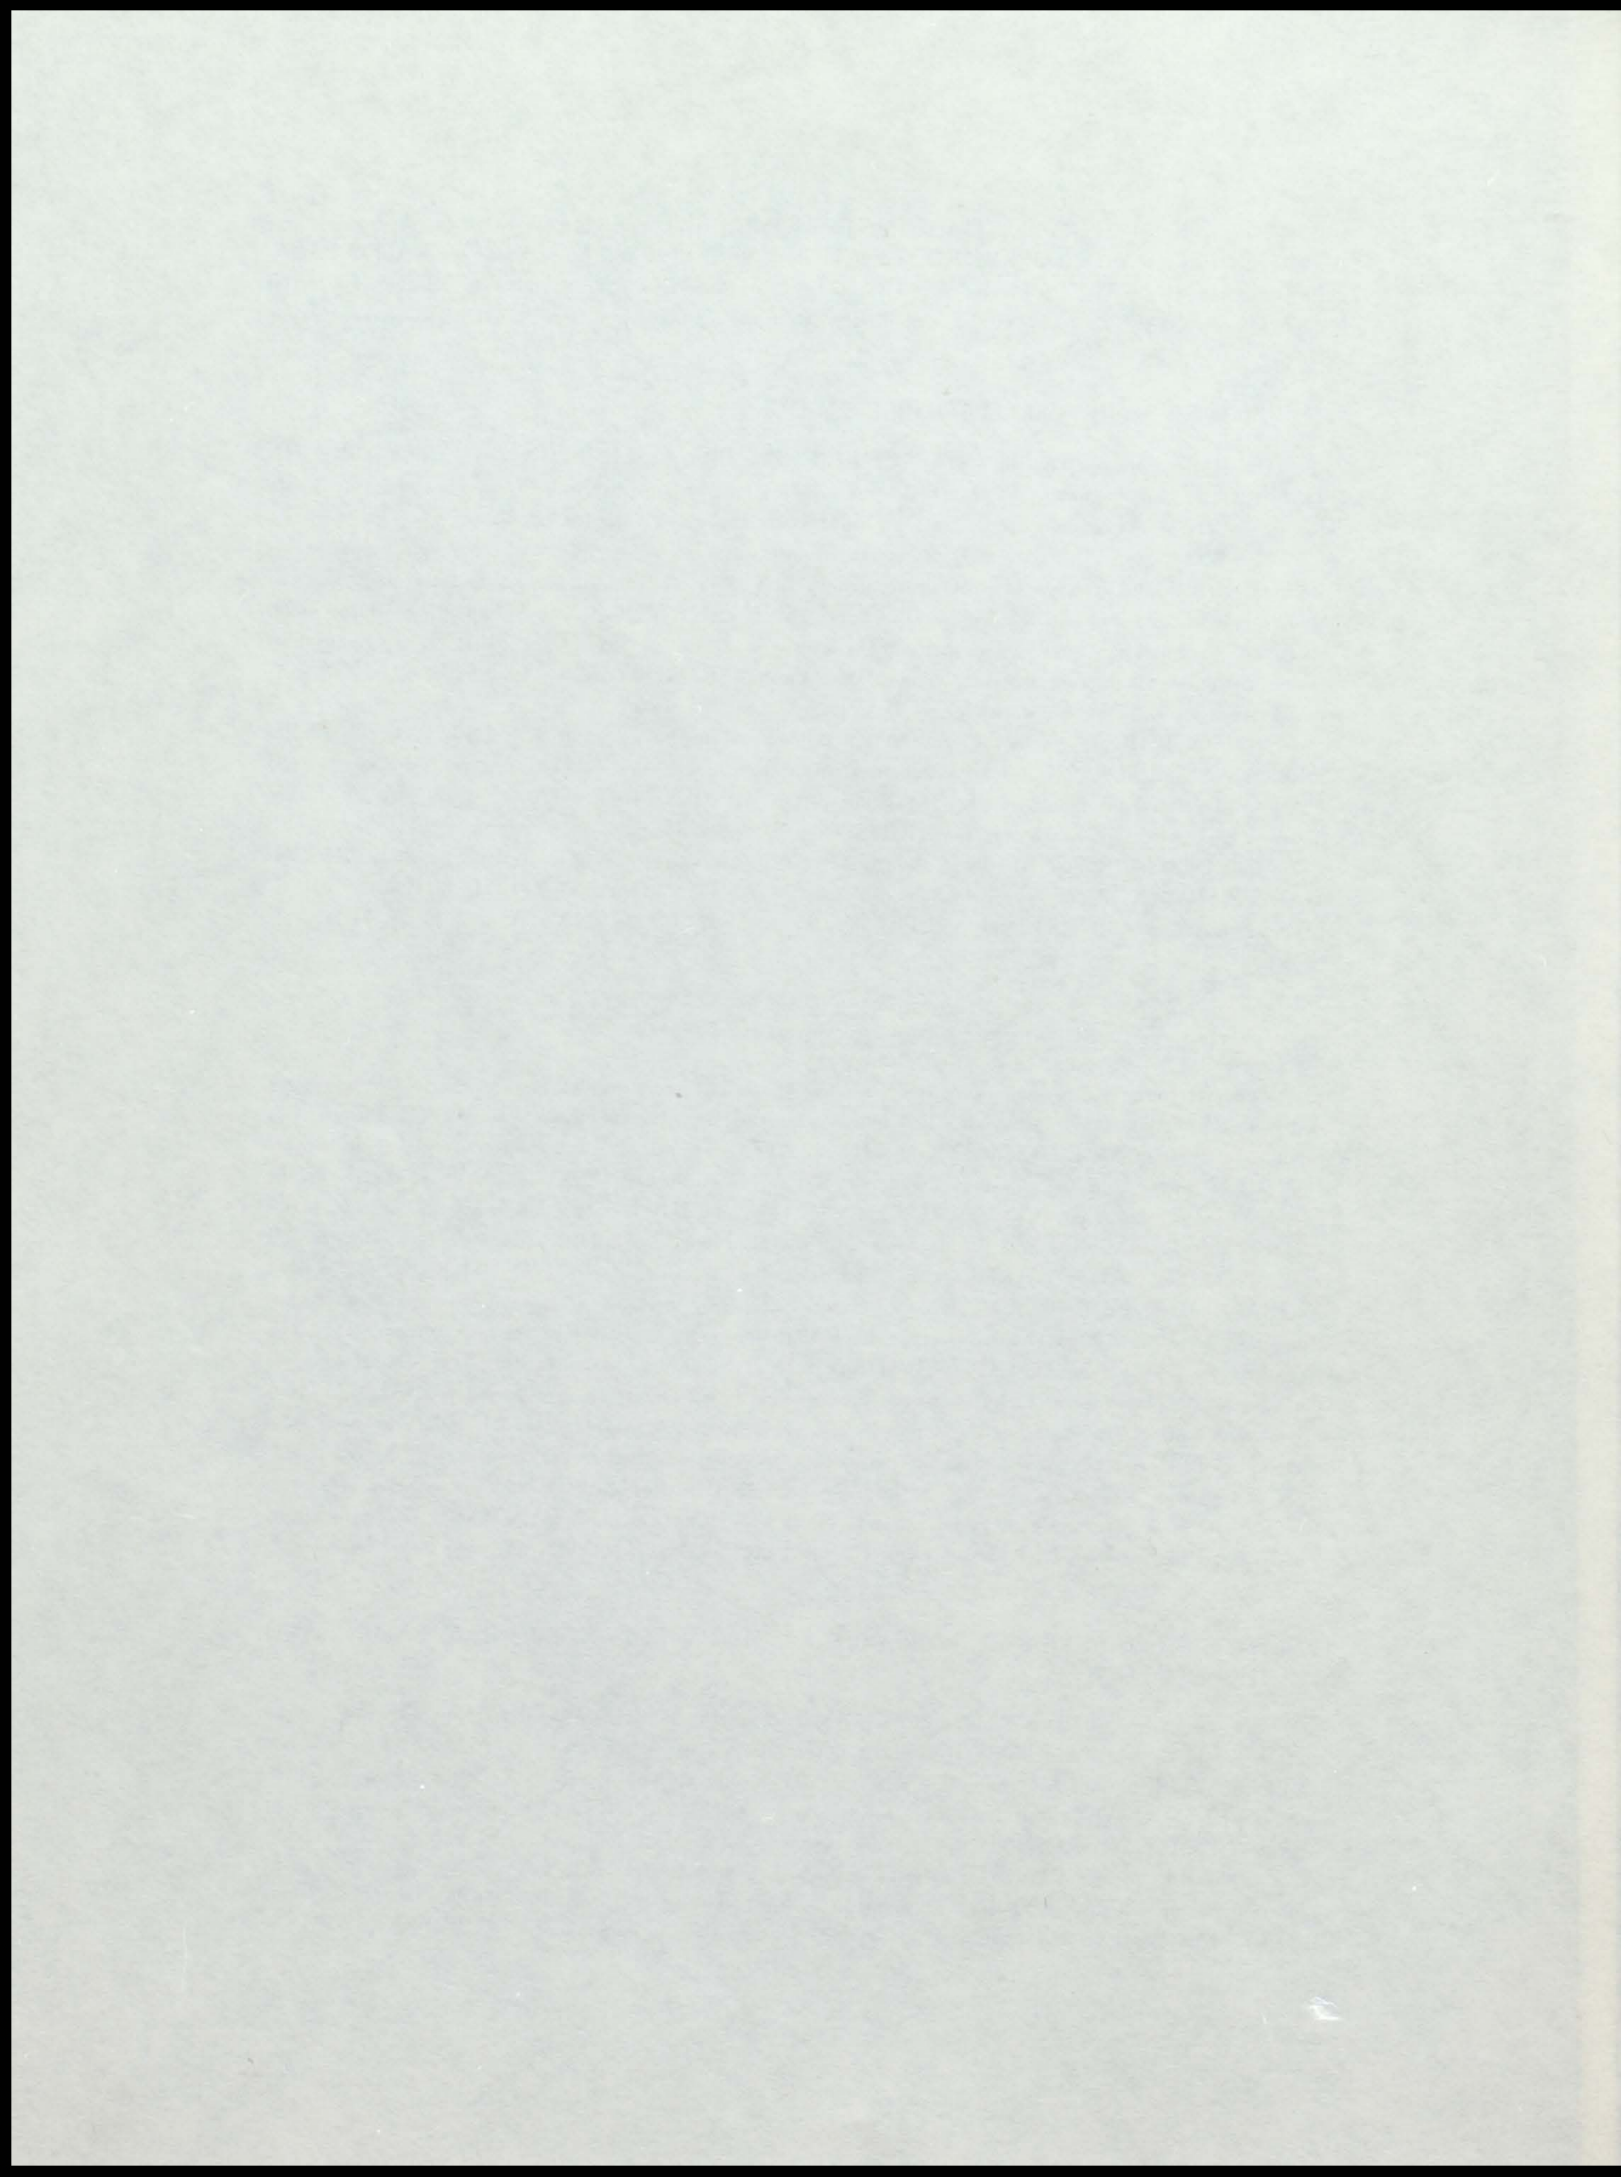

Chefs BERNARR SCHAEFFER and STAN SZCOTKA are playing cards with head-waiter REINHARD ZIERMAN. Among the politicians are commissioner LEN ANTONOZZI, Mayor JULIUS FRIMMER, Director of Safety IRVING NEROD, W. P. A. head JOE CAMASTA, and D. A. FRANKIE SOLE.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO MELVIN BORNSTEIN.

Upon returning to this flourishing city after ten years, I strolled over to High street to live again my dog-gone schooldays. As I entered the first building on this famed street, there was Big JOE PORRECA buying a suit from MURRAY the MOE, LIFSHULTZ, who was so accustomed to cutting during his high school career. In the back, ANTHONY INFANTE and DAVE WILLIAMS practised for the Metropolitan chorus. Prof. VINNY SCALERA, PH.D. and B.M.I. labored upon some cartoons. You can imagine how the music and the drawing turned out! Here I see PHIL "Killer" FARISCO and his boss, GEORGE "Mus" CARDINALE discussing the funnies with MIKE MOCCIOLA, MIKE YURINO, and JULIUS PULCHLAPEK. These Techs took the day off from their machine shop, because they were turning out so many screw threads that they were beginning to get screwy themselves. The basement was the garage for COUNCIL DAWSON'S Lightning Taxi Service. The receiver was off the hook on the phone so the Count wasn't to be disturbed in his beauty sleep. On the roof, AL BABOLA ace olympic swimmer was attempting to put on a novel acquacade. Instead of water, soda purchased from HAROLD BERGGREN was used so the performers could be refreshed as they worked. BEN REPICKY, a N. Y. Yankee holdout, is starring in the show. BOB (Souffle) SENTENAC is running a Happy Snack Shop in conjunction with AL'S business while HARRY (Cueball) SALZBACH is the manager. This was all too much so I left. As I went, I tripped over WALT OZIMEK and was killed in the fall.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO MARCELLA CLARK, LOIS COBBS, BETTY MARX, AND THERESA MASTROVITO.

We four, are each looking into a different crystal ball. What we see we'll tell you all. The JOSEPHINES will be white and blue. The former a receptionist; the latter a singer. MARCELLA CLARK and LOIS COBBS shall hold important jobs . . . the former will be a nurse; the latter a health instructor. EVELYN COYLE shall have her favorite boy. MINNIE FINELLI should watch out for fallen arches. GERALDINE GOIONE will get the best man, instead of the groom. ELVIA GREEN to become a chemistry dean. CHRISTINE IANNUZZELLA and BEATRICE LA CONTE, two gals with plenty of charm will find themselves wrapped up in arms. The arms are in the national defense program. BETTY MARX will be shot with all Cupid's darts for breaking so many hearts. THERESA MASTRO-

VITO and FRANCES MESITO will meet Joe and Moe who make plenty of dough in a road show. MARY QUALEY is going strong with Bill. (No alliteration is there?) FLORENCE RICCIARDELLI and MARIE ROSSETTI will be in business to exterminate ingrown toenails. HELEN SADOWSKI! Oh, oui, oui. When you hear the toll of bells, it will be the wedding of MARY TRUESDALE, ANGELINA VASILION with that smile, will have oh, so many a joy. THERESA VANARELLI and MARY VITELLO, are sweeter than sweet jello. MARIE WALTERS will marry Walter. JUNE HAND won't have any trouble with John. EDITH WINING shall be with boys whenever dining.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO LOUIS DI MATTEO.

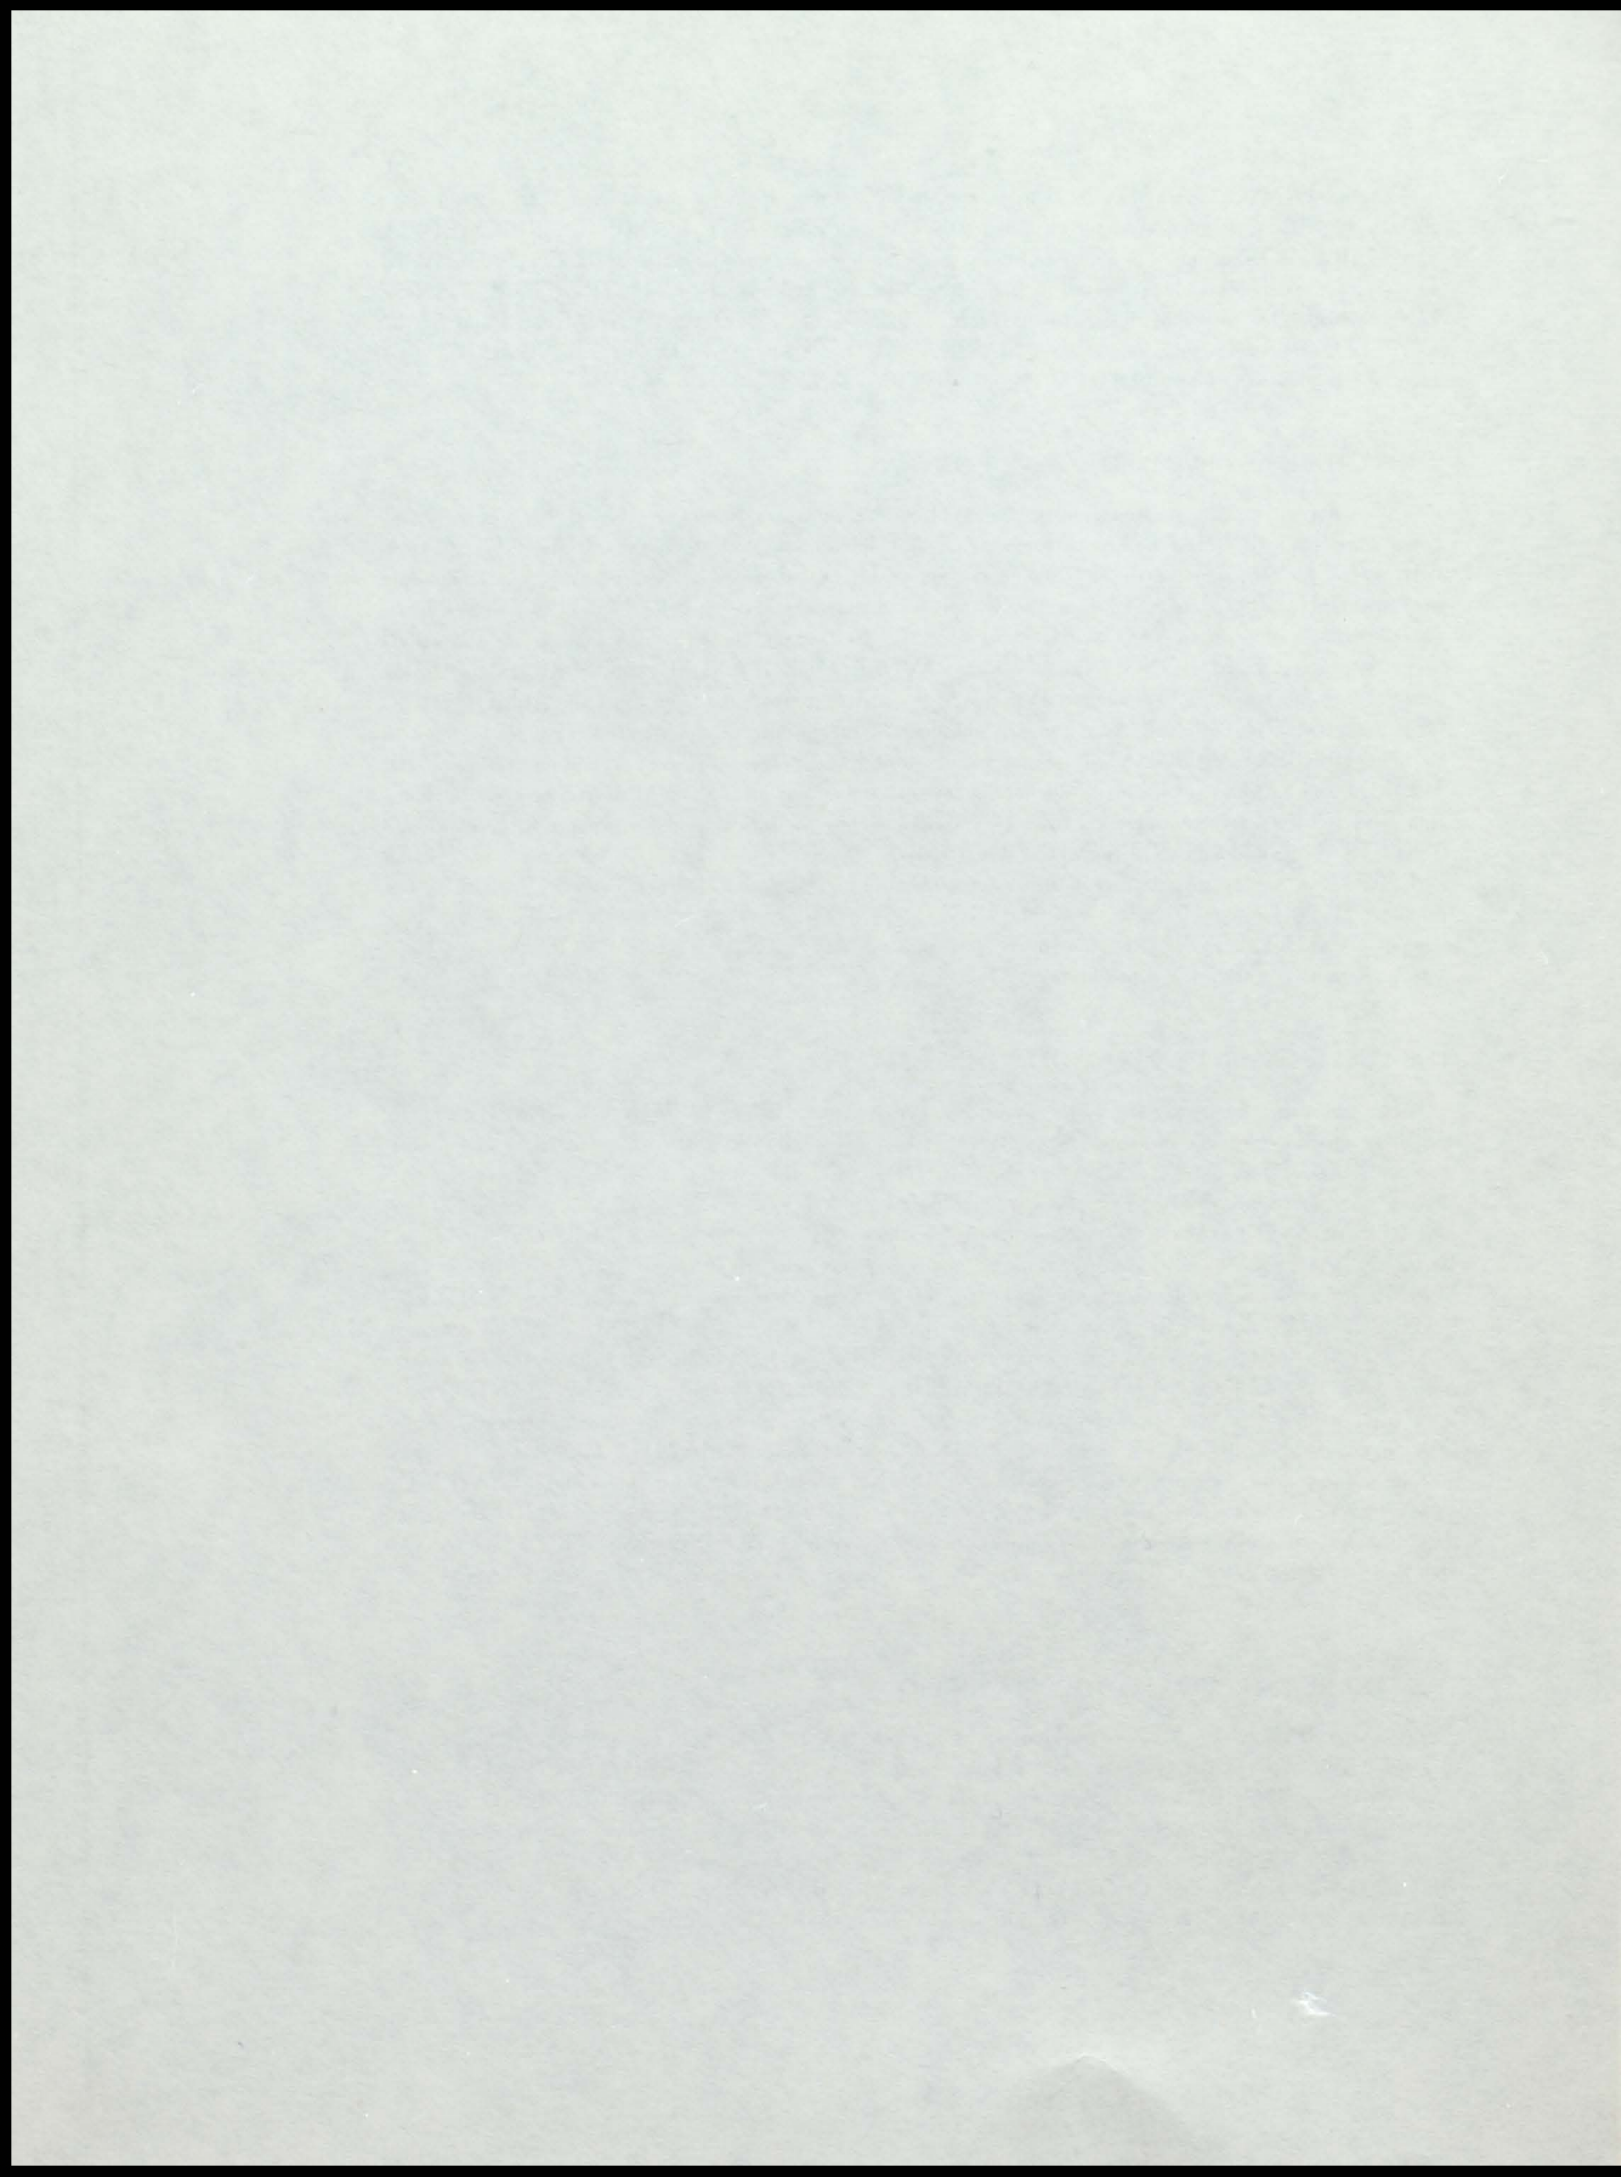

As we walk on Broad Street, we see many former Centralites from the class of Mr. "Kay Kyser" Eisen. GIULIO BINI has become a foreman of that splendid organization W. P. A. NEIL CALABRESE has his own dancing studio. Among the many different theaters, (where many of our school-days were spent) HENRY MAZANEK has finally become manager of one and RONALD JOHNSON, assistant manager of another. Next to RUSSEL EVAN'S Restaurant, there's a sign announcing the arrival of guitar-playing TOM BONGO from Newark. WOLF FRIEDLANDER and MIKE PASKAS are now reading the paper in Washington Park while they used to read them in Central. ALEX OSHEROFF author of "Hit the Road, You Bum" is standing in the middle of the street waiting for an idea to hit him. HERBERT VAUGHAN is selling baby rattles. The babies are over 18 and under 70. PHIL TORRISI and LEON STEIN are Philadelphia lawyers from Newark. AL SIMMONS is a world-champion boxer. (He's boxing oranges.) MIKE PINADELLA has an information bureau for husbands while BOB STRAUSE and CHARLES SCHNEIDER are city commissioners. ED TOCCI travails hard while JIM SMITH is a play-boy. Father Time's new understudy is BILL SCHMIDT. ART FARRELL is a prominent lady charmer. VINCENT MADLINGER has a batting average of 0.001 in the under-minor leagues. ANTHONY SORCE has outgrown Newark. HENRY VAN VOLKENBURG is present Mayor with an income less than his expenditures.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO LOUISE EMMANUEL.

The future has been revealed to me by an old gypsy fortune teller. LIBERA DE CHRISTOPHER will be well-known for her cartoons. ANN BOOTH and FILOMENA CASALE, operatic refugees, will sing with LOUISE EMMANUEL'S accordion. RUTH BOST, Bill Stern's substitute, is announcing the skating star LORAIN TRAINOR. Former jitterbugs, LENA GRASSO, ANGELINA GRANZOTTO and ROSALYN FREDA are dominating the dance floor. JENNIE BATES, MARIE GWARA and EVELYN LAUGHLIN shall have boys to their joy. A boy has gripped TINA COCUZZA. MARIE DE LORME and HAZEL ROLL have written a history text to shame Mr. Muzzey. PEARL SLOAN, HELEN KAPLAN and VIOLA CERINO are writing for the Police Gazette. JOSEPHINE CAPACCIO and MARY D'ADDARIO are keeping three men unemployed by working. Feature attractions of Greenwich Village are ANGELINA LATORACCA, JOSEPHINE COPPOLA and NORMA PIANTKOSKI. Two inseparables, IRENE ZELASKO and MINNIE ZLOBICKI are starving in a local stage show. Don't get me wrong, IRENE'S a singer and MINNIE a ballet dancer. MARTHA GOMEZ is a secretary to a New Jersey senator while LUCILLE VASONE goes out with the Governor. BEATRICE POTOFSKY, CATHERINE GRAHAM and OLGA STIELMOSSKO are make-up artists. They can resist the temptation to plaster a mustache on a lady's face. GRACE BUONERBA, HELEN GODAWSKI and JENNIE SZULYK are teachers. JEAN BUTLER, ERNESTINE ROPER and OLYMPIA PISCOTTI are happily married.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO VERA RICCIO.

AGNES BALDINO, La Conga Dancer, and EVA BARTOLA, find two's company, three's a crowd. ANGELINA CAPANO is now a nurse while MATTIE LOCKHART is a Social Service Worker. When MARIE COPPOLA wants Pepsi-Cola, she looks up VIRGINIA CLEMENTI who is bartender at Tony Galento's famous bar. OLLIE LEAK is the telephone operator who is always so pleasant. JESSIE LOWE and CECILE CARROLL have become stag-struck. DOROTHY LANGE, MILDRED GEBHARD and GLORIA FLYNN, plus MURIEL YARNOLD, FLORENCE ZIENCKIEWICZ, and MARION PRICE have all settled down. MARIE MISERENDINO, FLORENCE

COYNE and MARGARET MAULANO are well-known authors of current popular favorites. GLADYS DANIELS and GRACE PALMIERI are radio commentators. Radio is also a refuge to CONCETTA TACCETTA and VERA RICCIO. The art of Modeling has claimed VIRGINIA REIF, ELIZABETH DE BAKE and DOROTHY FORBERGER. While CHRISTINE KULL skates her way through life. MYRA KNAPP, former Jewelry Queen, slaves in an office. Seen everywhere, EDITH PETRUCCI and CARMELLA VITALE. Swell couple, fellows! ZANDETTA HUNT argues in a courtroom as EILLEN ZEPF wanders among the zephyrs. HELEN KAMINSKY, reading a popular novel, "Panic of the Years," to TESSIE GRIMALDI, has the latter holding her sides with laughter. As the vision fades away, I see HARRIET ASMANES singing in the open air Opera. Good Luck!

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO WILLIAM HUIE.

Two fellas that will go places are Prof. FRANKIE KLOSOWSKI, Phar. B. and A. E. I. O. U. and Doc. LARRY ALM of the Hospital for the school-sick and lightning-struck population. They have contrived a super-superman fluid of which I have received a $\frac{1}{2}$ inoculation. This bestows upon me the nerve to estimate the future. I predict that these two scholars will go to blazes.

JIM BURKS, a wireless telephony contraption experimenter of 1941, should contact the planet Krypton and JERRY CASALE, TOM KENDALL, and RALPH SPERDUTO will square dance to the music of Superkid, Superman's kid-brother. ED GOLASZEWSKI shall, in the next decade, defeat JOE CATALANO in a foil contest. Upon maturing, PAUL JOVANIS the Greek should get a pair of shapley limbs. He can do so if he joins the "Athletes Or Guys That Didn't Make The School Team" club. This club has only one dues-paying member. President BILLY HOERMANN; Vice-President ED KROL; 2nd Vice-President JOE GRUBER; Secretary ED ZEITLER; Treasurer MIKE TUFARIELLO; and Assistant Treasurer SAM LACAPRA. BILLY pays in I. O. U.'s.

As I recheck my specs, I see a mist in the disk. My mistake, it's STAN ZAENCHIK in his usual London Dairy Air. DANTE DEDOMENICO will gain the presidency if he drops the Republican ticket. HENRY FEDORCSAK, as a kleptomaniac will be well known. GEORGE KOHN, future inventor of shock-proof electricity, will go down in history as the man that took the thrill out of it.

Prominent on the planet Ballgame in the world of sports will be JOE PLAUKA, WALT STUPKA, and TONY PUCILLO. WALT SCHLEICHER collaborating with JOE WINGLER should write an Encyclopedia Highschoolistica that should run the Encyclopedia Britannica back to the days of George 3rd. And as for me, I'll still be predicting erroneously.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO CARL SEITZ AND LOUIS SOLOMINE.

Sometime in the future, we, CARL SEITZ and LOUIS SOLOMINE should become private secretaries. As for some others, why they'll go places. (Probably to Elizabeth) RALPH ANTROSIGLIO and DAN COLE are going to run a two-fold towel service for those who have water on the knee. Little RICHARD ECHO will be made Little Sir ECHO by assistant to the vice-president, FRANK DI PROFIO. ARNOLD BANSHAF will be a bookkeeper. The state'll have a few race tracks then. ED CURRAN, a flirt, turned into a soda-jerker. GUS CHRISTOS and ARTHUR COLE will manufacture shorter cigars so there won't be any butts to throw away. JOHN EXARHAKOS is going to run against FRANK IOSSO for the position of catcher of dog-catchers. To comply with the anti-noise law ANTHONY DI UBALDI and AL HORNYAK will produce soundless horns. CHARLES PARISI will automatically enter the steam business when he's elected Mayor of Hicktown. JOE VELLA and TONY TESTA will have some fiesta. BILL ZERVAKOS is now the best living bull fighter. He started slinging the bull back in his high-school days. LEWIS THOMAS will make All-American by playing college "hookey" as he did in Central. Cute JOHN NOTTE will be a prize for his girl when she enters him in the dog show.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO ANTOINETTE FARINA.

THERESA TIPALDI and FRANCES BILANCETTI to be princesses of the keyboard. ANTOINETTE FARINA and FRANCES CICCONE to operate a dress shop for chickens. Modeling the dresses will be IRENE BOROWY, DORIS NEDOROLIK, CARMELLA YANIRO, HELEN MUSCIO, FAY RUSSOMANNO, MARIE CAVALLARO, and FLORENCE SQUARTINO; not to mention JOSIE MONACO, ANNA GUILINO, MILDRED TOMASULA, SOPHIE ANASTASIO, and

EMMA, HELEN, and PHILOMENA VITIELLO. Oh!—Oh! With all the eyes that she makes BETTY McLAUGHLIN will be a glamour goil. The Misses MARY HAGGERTY and ALLEINE ST. PIERRE will wear cellophane skirts so the tailors won't have to make them so short. HELEN HAASE, JOSEPHINE GALETTA, and DELORES DE ROSE certainly favors the good-neighbor policy. They're going steady with West Siders. To some boy, DORIS VER NOOY will be a joy. ALINE BRENNAN and JEAN PROIETTI, when they're wed their house will never be dead. LORRAINE MINNICK will be a most competent secretary. HELEN PESPAS, MICHELINA SCHILLACI, and MARY VISCIDI will become Mrs. after passing out so many kisses. Those supreme operatic contraltos, MARY LOU HAMILTON and RAE SHERMAN will get to the Metropolitan Opera House. "Wee" Three, FRANCES LAZAROWITZ, JOSEPHINE VELTRE, and WINIFRED MAGEE will also sail on a calm sea.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO LILY CURRAN AND BETTY DELANEY.

MARIE CARLSON, KATHIE COSTELLO, and HELEN TROTТА are with a research expedition in Cuba searching for Tarzan. GONSALVES, ZURCH, and MEISTERICH are still ending their prayers with "Ah!—Men." With the foundation established at Central, MADELYN HEIMSTETTER and REGINA WILLIAMS are fitting corset models. ESTHER DAVIS, HANNAH TALARSKY, and FRANCES SCHMIDT are in a fog about the great John Barrymore, Jr. A census bureau operated by MARION SINNIGEN, BERTHA DZIKI and EVELYN GREILICH will check up motion pictures before they get to the Hays Office. BETTY DELANEY and LILY CURRAN are still plugging away. FANNY MANDELL has heard wedding bells and so has GLADYS BOOTH who now raises the roof. Humane nurses are JENNIE BELFIORE and MARGARET BEGG who is engaged to the fella who carts the lifeless bodies away from the hospitals. MARION MAYER is a Mayor's wife while ANN LORIA and LORIE ROZWADOWSKI are working on an invention that will replace mere men. GLADYS O'BRIEN and LORENE RUTLEDGE are still looking for a guy who's strong as Popeye. ALMA VICOVARI, CATHERINE STARZMAN, and IRENE KOLAKOWSKI have decided to work in the air. Buck Rogers, you lucky stiff. FLORENCE MERCURO and SUE PASTENA will meet Superman, but MARIE ROTOLO or FRANCES MARCINIAC may have to land him. After the exploration of the North and South Pole, JOYCE BIRD, will explore the equator. DOT NICHOLSON, will have riches. MARJORIE WILSON may become a saleslady, but ELEANOR CRYER will be a buyer.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO DICK PELOSI.

After consulting with my favorite yogi, about what the future holds for some of my friends, this is what I find. ED GASHLIN now has his own band in which you'll find PAUL GIARDINA, SAL GRIMALDI, and CLIFF GAINES. LARRY KEEFE has become Chief Court Reporter and WILLIAM BEER, an attorney. MILTON KAST is now the secretary of the Treasury and has WALTER BEIM working hard to hold his position. JACK ABRAMSKY and MAX LEFSKY with their "Next Date" bureau have finally helped TED JABLONOWSKI, SEYMOUR KATZ, and LEON KAISER get settled. ED DEJOWSKI is an important photographer in our city's largest paper "The Daily Blah". KEN FINNEY, PETE DE MARCO, CARMEN DE ROSA, FRANK CARBONE, BILL DOREMUS, and CHARLIE BEYER have just entered the best restaurant in town with their guests from the country. (Some girls you pick, fellas!) Walking up the hill was JOHN MOLINARI on his way to manage the State Champion C. H. S. Basketball Squad, of which BILL GURNEY is coach. NATHAN GROSSMAN has painted himself a name, while HAROLD GOLDMAN has made his through music. JOHN LAMM has just received the results of his screen test (Good for you, Johnny!) from SAM GIANCATERINA, who is his manager. TOM NARDONE is also out in the movie colony but he's Chief Comedian. DICK PELOSI was surprised not long ago, when he was made representative to South America for a big business concern. STAN SWENSON went with him for the trip. JERRY TEDESCO and ALEX STERNBERG, as courteous and affable as ever, were the chief attraction at a social gathering the other evening. ERNIE ZITO now proprietor of a huge record shop has records dating back as far as 1940. ANGELO ZOGOPOULOS is manager of the "Big" Theater downtown. IRWIN HEIMALL still keeps the girls guessing and SPENCER BOKAR is a close second. LOU BRISGEL is still running for President, and hoping he'll succeed this November. (Keep trying Lou!!) MIKE DE LUCA and DAVE DELLAGUZZO have collaborated and are in the middle of writing a book on the merits of good sportsmanship.

THE FUTURE AS REVEALED TO JOSEPHINE ANGELO.

As I gaze into the crystal ball,
I see the future for you all.
Many have attained success.
Few have made a mess.
Others have had their ambitions come true.
What the crystal foretells isn't taboo.

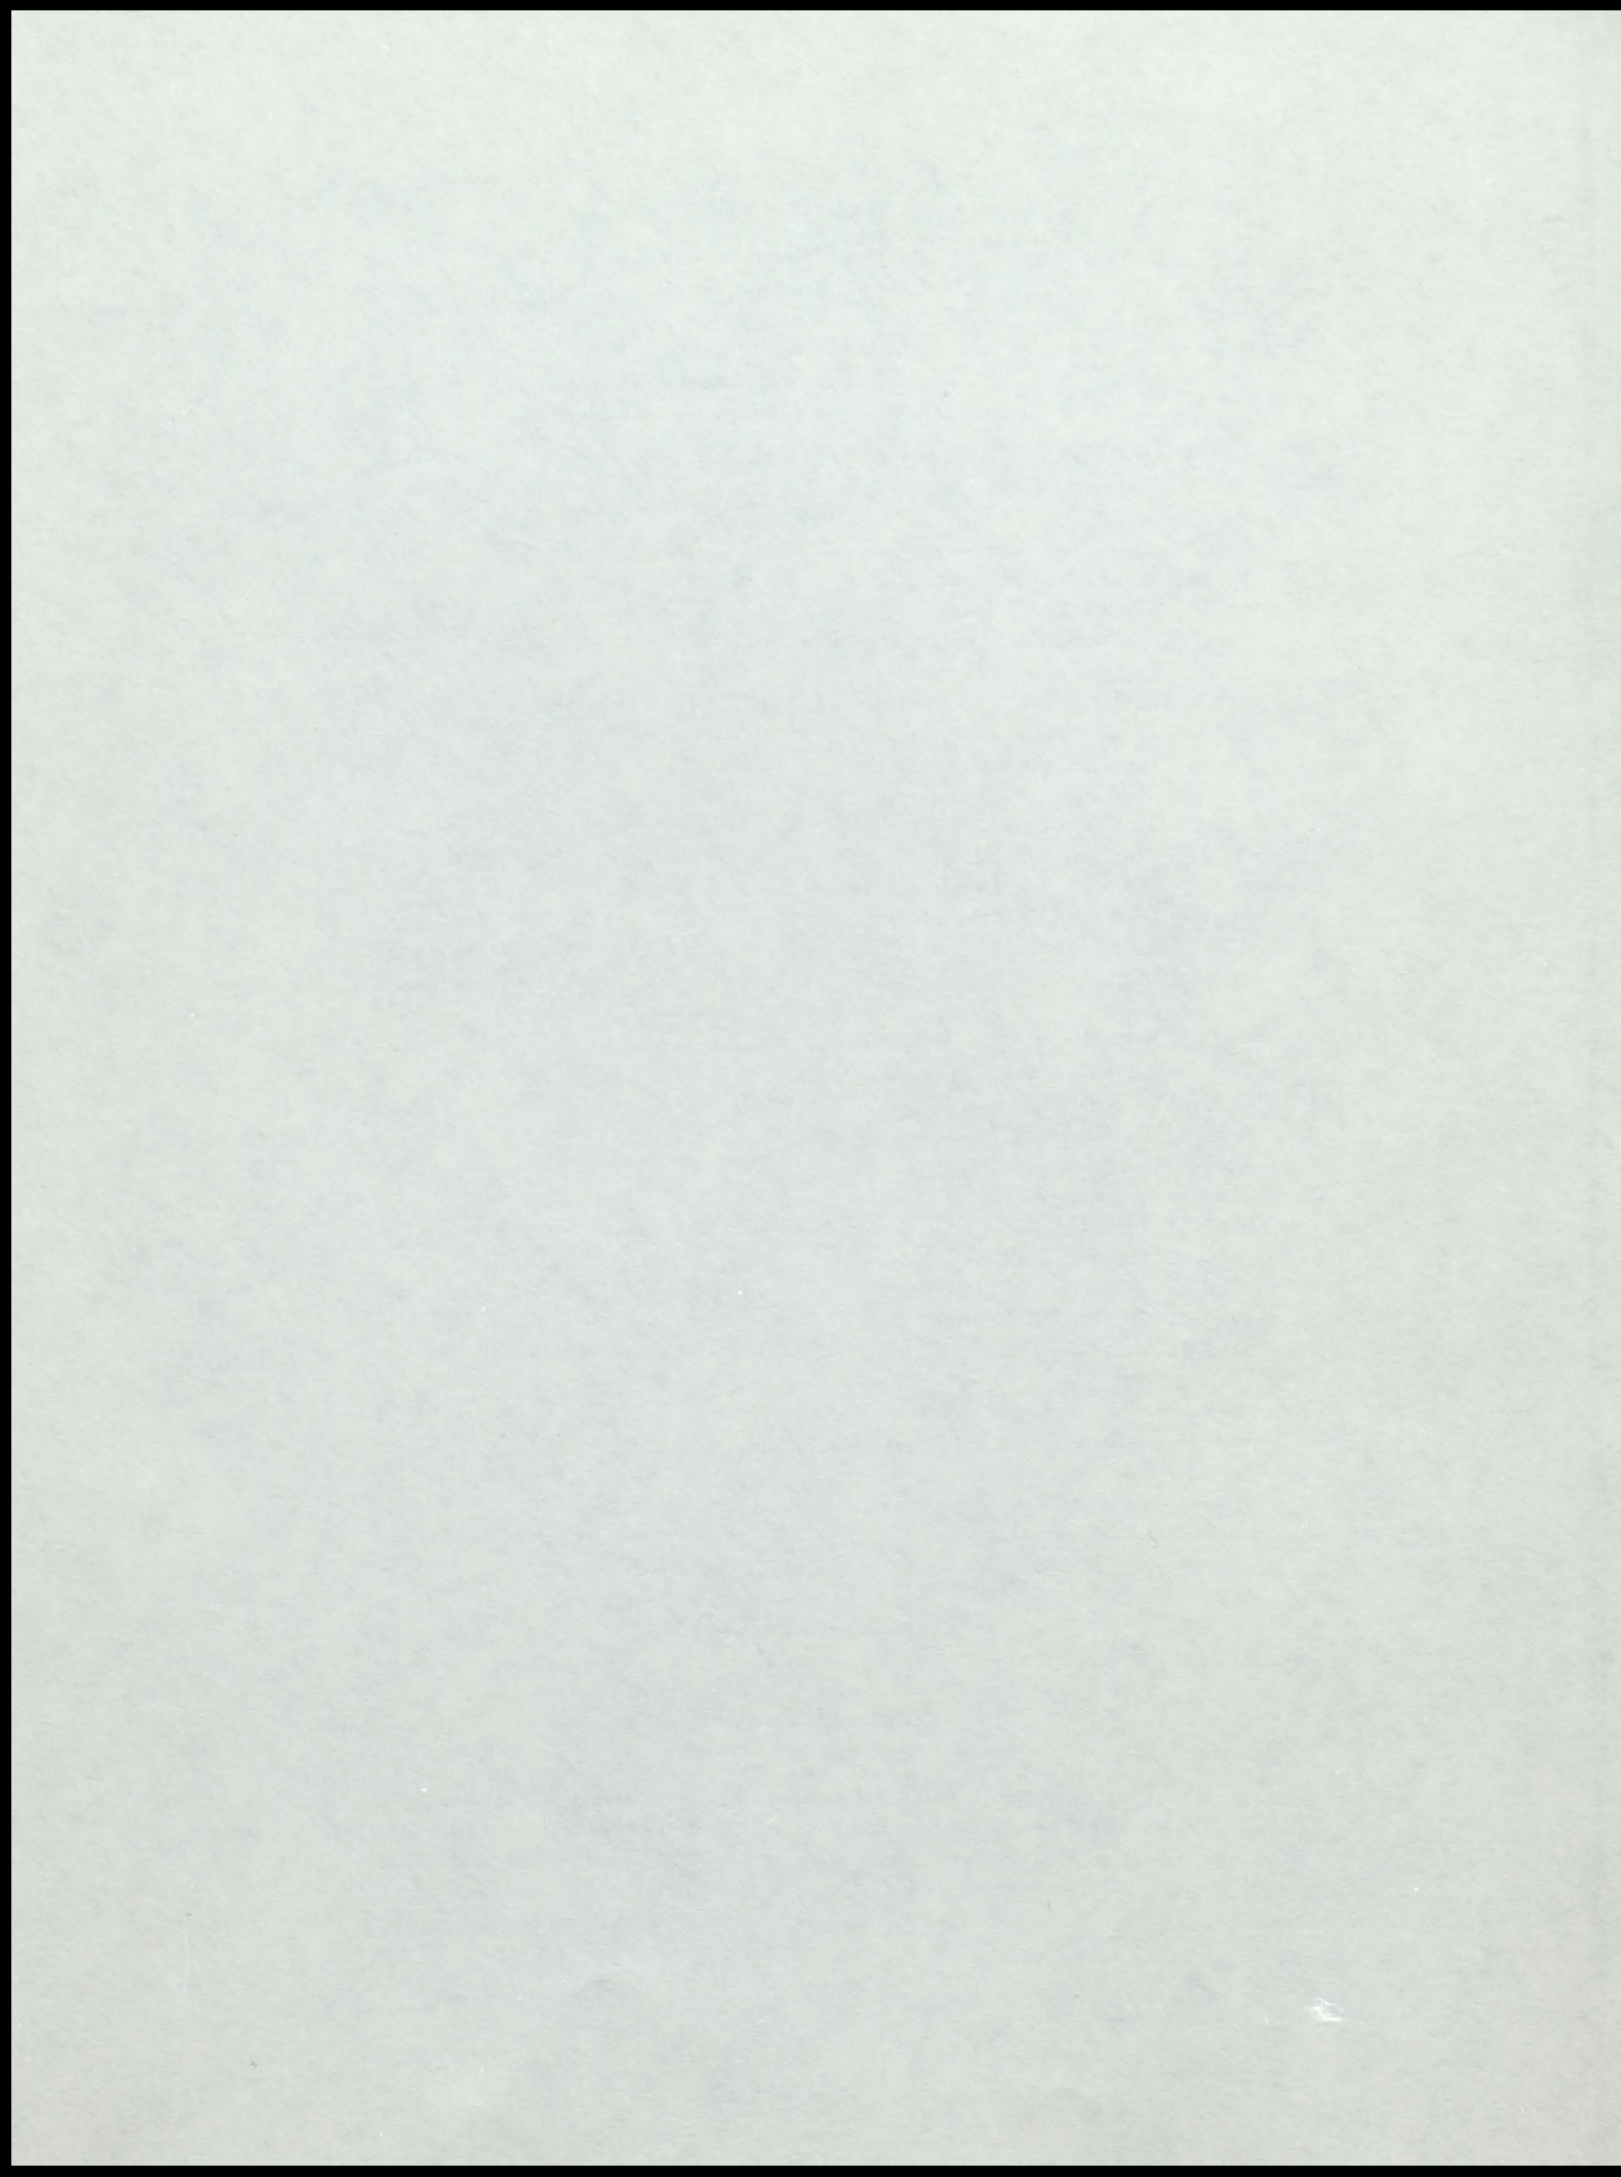

ELEANOR CAPOBIANCO and BETTY KOLODY with their curls,
Shall become glamour girls.
MARGIE ALVINE, CLAIRE CALAWAY, and MADGE REICH,
With the boys, will have some fights.
BETTY BALLANTYNE and ELEANOR FUCCELLO
Will marry handsome fellows.
Then there's MARGIE BOST, our sweet mother
With a daughter who has a brother.
ELSIE HAYRUP, HELEN TYBUR, and ALICE COURTER; class musketeers;
Are now number one racketeers.
Oh yes, mustn't forget the girls
Who stand at counters selling pearls.
MILDRED PRINCE, SANDY SALSINGER, and RUTH McELROY are three,
At the counter you will see.
MARY COLSON and ROSE BIEN while away the days
Waiting for hubby—with the pay.
ANN BECKERMAN, HELEN BOZYKOWSKI, and HELEN BRUNO shall be secretaries; JANE BUCHANAN, LENA CALABRESE, and RUTH CHAHANOFF; the ones who work in libraries.
HELEN SORIN and ANN DEVIATKA, intelligent girls
Will become famous ladies of the world.
WANDA CIUBA has married Bill,
But FANNY RIGOPOULOS is single still.
ALICE NUTHALL, now a Duchess;
Rides in limousines instead of buses.
JEANNE FRISCIA and GLORIA DE FRONZO, two beautiful models;
Pose with soda pop bottles.
MARION SCHARF, MILDRED PRICE, and EUGENIA NICHOLAS work in a store.
They say, "It's an awful bore."
SYLVIA NESSON, MARGARET MASTROSTEFANO, and MARJORIE LEOUSIS; we mustn't forget;
Are working in a factory to their regret.
And what of MARGARET DONATIELLO and HELEN GLAZAR;
Are they to be perpetual star gazers?
But what the crystal holds for me,
I will not confess to ye—

Some fortune may bring a tear,
Only to be followed by a cheer.
Thus the crystal has told its story,
Of 519 and its glory.
Prophecies of fortune and fame,
This crystal ball did proclaim.

* * * * *

And, after each and everyone of us has perceived with pleasure, a long life of utility, we shall penetrate the longevity stage. There, reuniting in an army of about 450 souls, we will retrospect our stay at Central. But, until then, hoping that none of us will metamorphose, we bid you salutations!
